Harvey Update #11

If your house is taking on water and you need help getting out, please call the Alvin Police Department non-emergency phone number at 281-388-4370. Red Cross has opened a shelter at Living Stones Church in Alvin located at 1407 Victory Lane. More information is forthcoming.

There are some reports of sewer backups beginning to happen along with the report of downed trees. Many streets throughout town are impassable. First responders have made many high-water rescues over the night and into the morning hours.

Regardless of your vehicle's capabilities, please do not drive through high water, creating wakes and potentially pushing water into homes and businesses that might otherwise not be damaged.

Mustang Bayou is at bank-top along most of its path through town.

Much more rain is forecast throughout the day. Do not take the absence of rain to be an indication that there is no water over the road. Conditions are subject to rapid change.

We caution everyone, for your own safety, unless you have an emergency need, please, stay home and off the roadways.
